Race sponsorship at Huntingdon Racecourse not only offers great publicity for your company, products and services, but also adds an extra dimension to your corporate raceday. A sponsored race sets you apart from other companies and encourages your guests to feel more involved in your event.

Sponsoring a race opens up many opportunities to give your guests a unique and memorable experience. Perhaps a valued client could present a trophy or enjoy high-profile, privileged access to judge the best turned out horse or simply revel in the special feeling of being able to say, 'it's our race next'.
